

Warranty Information

Dynamic Conveyor Corporation warrants products of its own manufacture for a period of five (5) years on the DynaCon® and DynaClean® product lines and one (1) year on the DynaCon ARB™ product line. Dynamic Conveyor Corporation will repair or replace any products that have failed under normal use due to faulty material or defective workmanship. Components, products and conveyors not manufactured by Dynamic Conveyor will be covered by the manufacturer's warranty. No other warranty is expressed or implied unless otherwise set forth in writing and approved by representative duly authorized to extend such approval by Dynamic Conveyor Corporation.

Additional note: Any Dynamic Conveyor Corporation equipment/systems that are physically altered without direct authorization from Dynamic Conveyor Corporation shall be termed "Product altered without authorization: no warranty or liability applies to that altered equipment/system".
